

Report from the Online Waldorf Library

Marianne Alsop

OWL Site Administrator

The Online Waldorf Library is here to help facilitate research and answer questions on a wide variety of topics. We continue to answer specific questions about the Waldorf curriculum from Waldorf teacher education students from around the world as well as teachers in Waldorf Schools and homeschooling parents.

From January 1 through the end of September 2021, the OWL had over 178,000 site visitors. Over one-third are from the USA. Other English-speaking countries include Australia, the UK, and Canada. India, Mexico, Spain, China, Argentina, and Chile round out the top ten site visitor countries.

The OWL is pleased to offer the Waldorf100 Project, an introduction and comments by Christof Wiechert on the faculty meetings from 1919 to 1925 between Rudolf Steiner and the teachers at the first Waldorf School in Stuttgart. A link to this new feature can be found on the home page: www.waldorflibrary.org.

We continue to offer an ever-expanding number of eBooks, available in pdf format, which can be accessed by downloading free software from Adobe Reader.
